

CONSTITUTION
THE SUMMIT COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY OF OHIO
Revised November, 2022

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization will be The Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The purpose of the Society shall be to promote, encourage and improve the condition of agriculture, horticulture, promology, industry, science, art, household economics, and the public schools and to promote the general betterment of our communities within Summit County and the State of Ohio. This shall be accomplished primarily through the promotion and organization of the annual county fair.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Any person 18 years of age or older and a resident of Summit County may become a member of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio by paying annually the membership fee of the Society as fixed by the Board of Directors. Memberships, dated January 1 through December 31, shall be placed on sale not later than December 15th of each year and shall remain on sale an average of thirty hours each week, at a place or places specified by the Board of Directors. The sale of memberships shall terminate on August 1st of each year. Notice of days, hours, and places where memberships can be purchased shall be announced in the annual premium list and in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county twice during the period of sale – once when the memberships go on sale and once no less than seven days before the sale is terminated but not earlier than twenty-one days before sale is ended.

Section 2. The Society shall issue no membership certificate to any entity other than a natural person. All membership certificates shall be issued in the name of the individual who paid the required annual membership fee and only those persons whose signatures appear upon their membership certificate shall be considered members of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio and have the right to vote at the annual election of directors of the Society or to hold any office (with the exception of Secretary and Treasurer) in the Society.

Section 3. A copy of the current Society Constitution shall be offered to individuals when purchasing a membership ticket.

ARTICLE IV – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The Board of Directors of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio shall consist of twenty-six members, elected by the membership of the Society.

Section 2. All new candidates for members of the Board must be members of the Society, who in the last twelve meetings prior to the election, attended a minimum of six (6) regularly scheduled Board meetings and who volunteered a minimum of twelve (12) hours for the Society during the most recent Summit County Fair.

Section 3. A simple majority of the whole number of votes cast at the election shall be necessary to elect.

Section 4. There shall be three Directors elected, based on their residency, from each of the four districts, and fourteen members shall serve in an at-large position.

Section 5. There shall be four districts in Summit County, described as follows: Area No. 1 – Sagamore, Northfield, Twinsburg, Hudson, Boston Heights, Stow, Silver Lake, Munroe Falls and Macedonia; Area No. 2 – Richfield, Boston, Bath and Cuyahoga Falls; Area No. 3 – Copley, Norton, Barberton, Franklin, Coventry and Akron west of Interstate 77; and Area No. 4 – Tallmadge, Mogadore, Springfield, Green and Akron east of Interstate 77.

Section 6. The Directors shall be elected for a term of three years and so arranged that one-third of the members be elected each year.

Section 7. In addition to the requirements in Section 2., to maintain eligibility for re-election, it shall be the duty of each director to: (A) Participate during the week of the annual fair in any aspect or as required by the committee the individual serves on; and (B) To annually donate fifty (50) hours to the Society on the fairgrounds and/or at Society events (this donated time cannot be accumulated during the annual fair and/or the four-days preceding the annual fair).

Section 8. The Board is empowered to appoint qualified members at large to fill vacancies after the annual election when candidates are not available in any given area where vacancies occur. These appointments shall be by a majority vote of the Board members at a regular meeting where a quorum is in attendance.

Section 9. The Board may remove any director if: (A) The Director has failed to attend three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled Board meetings without sufficient excuse or cause; or (B) The Director has failed to fulfill their duties during the annual fair without sufficient excuse or cause; or (C) The Director has failed to donate the required fifty hour time minimum throughout the year without sufficient excuse or cause; or (D) By order of the court, the Director has been found to be of unsound mind; or (E) By order of the court, the Director has been convicted of a felony; or (F) By order of the court, the Director has been convicted of theft; or (G) By order of the court, the Director has been convicted of a criminal offense involving moral turpitude; or (H) The Director has engaged in specific actions which cause or tend to cause the Society damage to its property or reputation, or which create potential legal liability on the part of the Society. The Director shall be issued a warning. Upon the third finding of the Executive Board of such conduct by a Board Member in violation, he/she shall appear before the Board of Directors to answer as to why the offending Board Member should not be expelled from the Board. After said hearing, should three-fourths (3/4) of the Board vote to expel the offending Board Member, said offending Board Member shall be forthwith expelled and the expelled Board Member's position shall be filled pursuant to Article IV, Section VIII herein.

Section 10. The Board may elect Honorary Directors at a regularly scheduled Board meeting upon receipt of a signed recommendation of three Board members. A two-thirds vote is required to elect. Honorary Directorship may be conferred upon an individual who shall have rendered notable service to the Society. An honorary director shall have none of the obligations of membership in the Society, but shall be entitled to all of the privileges except those of making motions, of voting, and of holding office.

ARTICLE V – ANNUAL ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. The annual election of directors by ballot, at a time and place fixed by the Board, shall be held not later than the fifteenth (15th) of November each year. The Secretary shall announce the filing requirements for the office of director and information as to how these may be fulfilled in the annual premium list, on the Society website and twice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the County no earlier than six weeks and no later than two weeks before the annual election of directors or by letter mailed to each member.

Section 2. The secretary shall furnish a blank petition to those declaring their candidacy once, (A) the candidate has appeared before the board at a regular scheduled meeting within three months of the annual election; and (B) the candidate states that he/she understand the duties of Director as described in the Society's constitution; and (C) the board has agreed by majority vote that the candidate has accomplished the requirements as described in Article IV Sections 2 and 7.

Section 3. Qualifying members of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio must declare his/her candidacy by filing with the secretary of the Society, at least 14 days prior to the annual election, a petition that has the candidates personal information notarized and which bears the signatures of 10 or more members of the Society. The petition shall state the specific board position for which the candidate is seeking to be elected. Any member who fails to file a petition that includes the required three items is ineligible for election as a director.

Section 4. The President shall appoint three judges and two clerks who are members of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio to conduct the election and declare the results thereof. Candidates may witness the count either in person or by proxy. Polls must be open not less than four hours between 6:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. The time of opening and closing must be stated in the notice of elections. The judges of elections shall have the membership roll and verify the right of all persons before receiving their ballots. The casting of proxy votes for Director is not permitted. The clerks of elections shall register the names of all persons voting and tally the count, one copy of which register and tally sheet shall be placed on file with the Secretary of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio, the other copy shall be mailed to the Department of Agriculture of Ohio within ten days after said election.

Section 5. Any vacancy caused by death, resignation, refusal to qualify, removal from County, or other causes, may be filled by the board by qualified individuals, as per Article IV, Section 8 of this constitution, until the next annual election, when a director shall be elected for the unexpired term.

Section 6. The duly elected directors must affirm and sign the following affirmation before a competent authority before they are qualified to perform the duties of this office: "I do solemnly swear (or confirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of Ohio, the laws of Ohio, the rules and regulations of the Department of Agriculture of Ohio pertaining to Agricultural Societies and to the best of my ability perform the duties of Director of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio, so help me God."

ARTICLE VI – ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

Section 1. The Board of Directors shall annually meet not later than the thirtieth day of November for a reorganization meeting of officers and at such meeting shall elect a President, Vice President(s), Treasurer, Secretary and such other officers or positions as it may deem proper.

Section 2. President and Vice President must be members of the Board of Directors while Secretary and Treasurer need only be members of the Society. The term of President and Vice President is for one-year while the term for Secretary and Treasurer is a three-year term.

Section 3. The duly elected officers must affirm and sign the following affirmation before a competent authority before they are qualified to perform the duties of this office: "I do solemnly swear (or confirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of the State of Ohio, the laws of Ohio, the rules and regulations of the Department of Agriculture of Ohio pertaining to Agricultural Societies and to the best of my ability perform the duties of Officer of the Summit County Agricultural Society of Ohio, so help me God."
