

JR. FAIRBOARD CONSTITUTION

Summit County Junior Agricultural Society

AKA

Summit County Junior Fairboard

Constitution Adopted 2018 and Revised 2021

Article I: Title

This Society shall be known as the Summit County Junior Agricultural Society; and will be referred to as the Summit County Jr. Fairboard (JFB).

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of the society shall be to promote and encourage improvement of agriculture, youth development, improvement in our community and educational interest in the youth of Summit County. The Summit County JFB shall function as a youth training organization, with the purpose of guiding members into successful roles in leadership. The JFB will work in conjunction with the Sr. Fairboard, and with the 4-H youth programming/leaders as needed. Create an inclusive space in which young leaders can refine personal skills and learn to work with others towards common goals to help promote the Summit County Fair.

Article III: Membership

SECTION 1: Membership in the Society is open to members involved in 4-H, FFA, FHA, Farm Bureau, Scouts and any other youth serving agency or attending school or homeschooled in Summit County and are between the ages of thirteen and nineteen. Youth eleven and twelve years of age can be associate members. Associate members cannot hold office or head a committee but may vote during meetings.

SECTION 2: Applications for Board Members shall be made in writing by September 15th to the Summit County JFB Advisory Board. Members will be chosen by October 15th by the Summit County JFB Advisory Board. The Advisory Board will fill 23 three-year terms and 22 two-year terms. The Advisory Board at their discretion may fill two-year terms even if not all 23 three-year terms are full.

Article IV: Board Members

SECTION 1: The board shall consist of a maximum of 45 members who may represent any or all the youth-serving agencies listed in Article III. There will be 23 three-year terms and 22 two-year terms which will be filled by the Advisory Board.

SECTION 2: Board members shall be selected by application and/or interview for a term of two years and a maximum of three years. A Board Member may serve additional terms after completing the application and selection process. Interviews are not required for Board members unless requested. These members will be chosen by the JFB Advisory Board.

SECTION 3: All JFB members will be required to complete 20 service hours at Jr. Fairboard sanctioned activities annually. 10 hours are required to be completed anytime during the year. The other 10 hours are to be completed the week BEFORE the County Fair and the week of the County Fair. The calendar year will end on the final day of our Summit County Fair. Every member will be responsible for logging in/out of events to ensure their hours are accruing. Members who do not complete service hours by the end of the fair will not be eligible to run for office, and JFB membership will be .

Article V: Election & Executive Officers

SECTION 1: The Board shall elect a President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Sunshine officer. The officers shall serve a one-year term until their successors are elected.

SECTION 2: Elections of officers shall be at the December meeting and will fill that position at the next Board meeting. Annual nominations will be held in November by the nomination committee, which will consist of 3 members chosen by the current President at the September meeting. In addition to running the election, the nomination committee will contact each member to inquire if they wish to run for an office.

SECTION 3: The duties of the officers shall be:

The President shall preside at all meetings of the organization. He or she and the advisors will plan for each meeting in advance.

The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President when the President is absent and shall oversee committees. This would include ensuring that the committees and subcommittees have submitted minutes to the Jr. Fairboard Administrator. If a committee is not represented at a meeting, the vice-president shall report those minutes to the membership.

The Secretary shall keep record of all actions of this organization, shall write letters of this organization and shall keep an accurate enrollment of all members. At each board meeting, the secretary shall document in the minutes the treasurer's report from the meeting. It is also the duty of the secretary to file a written report of all proceedings and business of the Jr. Fairboard to the Sr. Fairboard.

Treasurer shall report all finances at meetings and will meet a minimum of 2 times yearly with the JFB Administrator to go over financial reporting. All expenditures shall be approved by a majority vote at the next regular meeting. The treasurer will work with the President and advisors to annually develop a general budget for expenditures and present it to the members for approval. Any expenses, which exceed budgeting amounts or are an unbudgeted item, must first be approved by the members. The member asking for reimbursement will be required to submit the receipts to the Sr. Fair Office. The Senior Fairboard Audit Committee shall audit the treasurer's book quarterly. The treasurer shall work with the Sr. Fairboard treasurer to develop a year-end report.

Sunshine Officer – Shall send out letters, cards (thank you & birthday) and well wishes at direction of officers/advisors.

SECTION 4: The term of office shall expire December 31st, and the newly elected officers begin their term January 1st.

SECTION 5: All resignations must be made in writing to the JFB Administrator. Any vacancy of a JFB officer will be filled by the Advisory Board.

SECTION 6: Executive Officers who fail to perform their duties as described above in a responsible and orderly fashion may be removed from the JFB by the JFB Advisory Board. Executive Officers may also be removed from office for inappropriate personal conduct.

Article VI: Meetings

SECTION 1: A majority vote of a quorum of members must be present to transact business. If any JFB member is absent from three meetings per year, for an unexcused reason, the member will forfeit his/her membership. An unexcused absence shall be defined as failing to report an absence to the JFB Head Advisor or the Jr. Fairboard Administrator prior to the meeting. Members will also be expected to attend their respective committee meetings throughout the year.

SECTION 2: Meetings shall be held in February, April, June, July, September, November, and December. Additional emergency meetings may be added at the discretion of the head Jr. Fairboard Advisor.

SECTION 3: Order of business shall be as follows:
