Introduction

The purpose of the Summit County Agricultural Society is organized exclusively for charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations described under section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code and shall be to promote, encourage and improve the condition of agriculture, horticulture, pomology, industry, science, art, household economics, and the public schools and to promote the general betterment of our communities within Summit County and the State of Ohio. This shall be accomplished primarily through the promotion and organization of the annual county fair.

The first fair on record in Summit County was held on October 2 and 3, 1850 on the grounds and in the courthouse. There were such large crowds that the society looked for a larger area to hold the fair and in 1853 the fair was moved to a tract of land on South Main Street opposite the present B.F. Goodrich office building. This was such a success that by 1856 they had also built a half mile race track and races were held that year at the fair October 8,9, and 10. "Said Editor Ahsel Lewis of the Summit County Beacon in 1858; 'Beyond a doubt the county fair is of inestimable value in Akron. It is a magnet which pulls in at least $200,000 of outside money each autumn. Without this extra business we fear that some of our merchants would be sorely troubled in these trying times'. Crowds had become to large by 1858 that they needed to look for a larger piece of land. There was a chance to buy the land where BF Goodrich factories sit today but the fair officials didn't act on it soon enough. "David L. King, son of Judge Leicester King, then came to the rescue and leased to the society for five years a splendid 35 acre tract on the hill between Ash Street and Glendale Avenue, just west of the business district, which was called Summit Grove. When their lease was up in 1864, the fair moved to a 30 acre tract at S. Maple and Balch and this area held fairs until 1875. In that year, the society purchased from the Austin Powder Company a 45-acre tract known as the powder patch in the Little Cuyahoga Valley. For this tract the society paid $5,000 in cash and a 30-acre farm west of Akron it had purchased previously for $6,000. At its new location, the society established Fountain Park. The first fair held there was in October, 1875. Later, Fountain Park was greatly beautified, a fine race track built, and many buildings constructed. Fairs were held there annually until the mid 1920's". From this point until 1956, fairs were held in various locations; Ascot Racing Park, Summit Beach Park, and the Schoolhouse in Tallmadge to name a few.

In 1957, the Summit County Agricultural Society was re-organized under the leadership of President, Charles Call. The Society's main purpose was to promote the Summit County youth and their activities. At this time, the Summit County Commissioners leased to the Society 5 acres of the Summit County Home property located in Tallmadge. When the "Summit County Junior Fair" opened for three days, August 15-17, 1957, the Society was the proud owner of two buildings and a lot of hopes and dreams for the future. From day one, many proud, hard working, dedicated volunteers have put in their time and efforts towards building and beautifying the grounds. By 1970, the Summit County Fair was labeled "The Biggest Little Fair in Ohio". In 1975, "Junior" was dropped from the name and the Society once again became the Summit County Fair. Open class competition was added which took a big step in the family orientation of the fair. The fair quickly outgrew the original 5-acre plot and in 1979, 30 additional acres had been added. The Society now owned 12 buildings, two show rings and a new grandstand. With the addition of the grandstand, events such as demolition derbies, truck & tractor pulls, concerts, rodeos and motocross competition was added to the fair.

Today, the society sponsors the annual fair the last week in July and strives to provide entertainment for the entire family, a place to exhibit and show livestock, horticulture, crafts, baking, canning, and antique displays, education on agriculture like our AG Venture program, 4-H shows and exhibits, food, rides, commercial exhibits, the incredible Farm Bureau Antique Museum and so much more.

The volunteer board of directors, work year rounds to keep up the grounds and provide space to, allow 4-H clubs to meet and hold clinics for free, discounts for non profit organizations for meetings and events, offers our facilities to hold training and certifications for police, fire and other agencies, rent our facilities for weddings, private parties, dances, meetings, vendor shows, dog shows, horse shows, alpaca shows and much more.

We hope that you love the annual fair as much as we do and we hope you enjoy your days with us at the 2025 Summit County Fair!
