

JR. FAIR DEPARTMENT

RULES JR. FAIR DEPARTMENT J13 – J18

In this department, you may choose to display your project only for the week of the fair or you may choose to display your project and have it judged. If you choose to have your project judged, you will still bring your item on Sunday before the fair, and it will be displayed throughout the week. For judging, you will retrieve the item you brought - such as a wood-working project or poster - and take it to your scheduled judging time. Once judging is complete, your project will be returned to the display area and remain on exhibit until the end of the fair.

- 1) ENTRY DEADLINE IS JUNE 14.
- 2) Awards - Ribbons and Banners.
- 3) Entries should be brought to the Domestic Arts Building, Sunday, July 26 from 1:00 P.M. - 6:00 P.M. - The entry you bring depending on your project will either be a poster board or an item that you made or grew for your project - examples - woodworking, sewing, vegetables, flowers, photography, would be an item. Exploring the outdoors or Science Fun with Physics would be a poster board or some type of display.
- 4) Only one entry per project book per exhibitor allowed. Exhibitor can enter as many project books entries as they would like in each department.
- 5) At Check in - Entries must be labeled with name of entrant and name of project book. Project book must be completed for each project and brought to check in to show that it was completed.
- 6) For the Cooking and Baking projects, on showing day you will be required to bring a table setting.
- 7) Each department has a judging day. If you registered to be judged on that day, you will check in and you will retrieve your item and wait to be judged. This judging will be different than grade and exhibit. You will be competing with others that have taken that project as well. Then awards will be given out after judging. Then your item will be returned to the domestic arts for display for the remainder of fair.
- 8) Items can be picked up Sunday, August 2 starting at 6pm, Or you can pick up your items the week after fair but you must make arrangements with the Jr. Fair Secretary.
- 9) This competition DOES NOT QUALIFY YOU FOR STATE FAIR.
